

Kobe Familiarara

kobefamiliarara@gmail.com || linkedin.com/in/kobefamiliarara || 1(914)-217-0346

Education

Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health

May 2022

- Master of Public Health in Epidemiology

Stony Brook University

May 2020

- Bachelor of Science in Health Science, Concentration in Public Health

Relevant Work Experience

Direct Support Professional (Aide) - YAI

June 2018 – Dec 2020

- Assist those with special needs to live independent and fulfilling lives.
- Provide and bill Medicaid services for several residents through eVero software.
- Prepare food according to OPWDD guidelines for food and drink consistencies.

Teacher's Assistant - Stony Brook University

August 2017 – April 2018

- Encouraged and guided students to be independent learners and apply complex topics in General and Organic Chemistry under Dr. Gregory Rushton and Dr. Joseph Lauher.
- Held office hours (3 hours per week) and assisted during classes

Influenza Surveillance Intern at DOH

March – May 2016

- Worked under epidemiologist, Dr. Toby Levin, at the Westchester County Department of Health (DOH) to organize flu surveillance data onto excel spreadsheets. This data would later be used to inform public health policy.

Skills and Trainings

- Bilingual - Intermediate Spanish, Intermediate Tagalog
- CITI Training in Basic Humans Subject Protection (including HIPAA)
- Contact Tracing for COVID-19, John Hopkins University
- Proficient in Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)
- Python
- SAS (Statistical Analysis Software)
- Web Development (HTML, JavaScript, CSS)

Projects

- Web application that maps the change in COVID-19 cases in U.S. through time (Please visit kobefamiliarara.com)